COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course is intended to provide an overview of western Austronesian languages. Topics to be covered include: (i) historical and typological overview of western Austronesian languages; (ii) transitivity and ergativity; (iii) subjecthood.
Data will be drawn from a number of western Austronesian languages representing different subgroups and/or different geographical areas.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Term paper presentation (July 29 and August 5)   40%
Research/Term paper (due August 15)   60%

Grades for this course will be based on one presentation (40%) and one research/term paper (60%).

- Term paper: All registrants are expected to write a brief report on morphosyntax of one (or more) western Austronesian language(s).
  - Presentation: 15 minutes for presentation and 5 minutes for Q-A. Please prepare handouts for all participants in the class.
  - Format: All registrants are expected to write a 10–20 (double-spaced) page paper that conforms to the guidelines of Language or Oceanic Linguistics. [Note: Examples should be presented in a (single-spaced) three-line format (Line 1—language data (use IPA Doulos 93 or Doulos SIL for phonetic symbols); Line 2—interlinear gloss; Line 3—free translation).]
  - Deadline: The research paper is due at 10:00AM, Tuesday, August 15, 2006.

REQUIRED READINGS:
A collection of articles from journals and books [see Reading List].
